S. 869

A bill for the relief of Mina Vahedi Notash

As reported by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary on June 29, 2000

S. 869 would make Mina Vahedi Notash eligible for permanent United States residence. CBO estimates that enacting this legislation would have no significant impact on the federal budget. S. 869 could have a very small effect on fees collected by the Immigration and Naturalization Service, which are classified as direct spending, so pay-as-you-go procedures would apply.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Mark Grabowicz. This estimate was approved by Robert A. Sunshine, Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.
